The riveting true story of my Husband's journey to Heaven and back and how it transformed our lives

Your book strengthened my faith and encourages me to continue to hold on to the Zephyr ride that my life has become over these last few years. Like the author, my hopes and dreams for my life has not equalled to the equation that I'd strived for and I find myself surrendering to His will and trusting Romans 8:28. This book was so heartfelt and easy to read. It made me smile and brought me to tears but most importantly it renewed my strength and my faith. It made me appreciate your state, our Catholic heritage and our j'our defense vivre! Thank you and please know that you fulfilled Bernie's wish to get the message out.

Bernie doesn't survive and being an RN she was convinced only a family with political position would receive such extraordinary treatment to begin with ,well I almost didn't read it. But the real story transcends socioeconomic privilege and offers the beautiful truth of our merciful God who offers salvation and spiritual healing to all. The beauty of our Church and our interconnection is so lovingly depicted. So grateful to have read it.

Although the Roman Catholicism perspires all over the book, MIRACLE MAN is very refreshing and easy to read by people of any faith. I found it realistic and funny. I laughed and I cried a lot. The author really connects to her readers vividly. The message of hope is amazing. I recommend it to anyone who is going through a very rough time in life while being confronted with health issues, old age challenges, or death of a loved one. I truly hope this book helps anyone in his or her own journey to find joy and confidence in the promises of Christ.

This book romps along indicative of a family that lives in the fast lane. Lots of extended family connections which made it difficult at times to see how it all connected up with NDE of which there was only a little towards the end of the book. Its mainly about the struggle of a wife who's frantically trying to keep her husband alive after a heart attack with constant prayer and bedside vigils. A good read but not a relaxing one.

A must read book! The Author graciously details both the happy and difficult times of her life, marriage, spiritual journey, and the illness and passing of her beloved husband. This is a "can not put down" page turner story that grips you to your core, heart and soul. Offers the most important and life changing issues to carefully reflect on: salvation, Eternal Life, graces in suffering, Eternal Love. I hope the Author continues to write and share her life stories.

In her powerful account of her husband's traumatic illness and it's aftermath, Judy teaches us that only FAITH makes it possible to find peace and move forward when the unexpected turns life inside out. Her journey with her husband is a tumultuous love story that finally finds it's fulfillment in Christ and is made perfect. I thank Judy for this beautiful, heart-touching story. It left an indelible mark on my spirit. - Valerie Englehardt

This story moved me to tears! The trials in life are depicted in loving and moving ways! The tragedy of how death separates us for a time is shared beautifully. The beauty of family love despite our individual differences that often cause conflict are portrayed honestly and sincerely. This story will inspire you to love God and neighbor with your whole heart.

An amazing story of an amazing family and their "roller-coaster" ride through life! You won't want to put this book down. You will live every moment with Judy, and her family. Judy's journey spoke to me on many levels but most profoundly how God works for "GOOD" in our lives in His ways if we will only love and trust Him and how suffering is truly redemptive.
