Customer Reviews

Josie's Dilemma was a difficult one as kept second guessing herself. Isn't that something most of us do at times? Just because they lived in a different Era doesn't make their feelings any different than ours. This novella took a little under an hour to read. It was inspirational which are the types of books I like to read. The writing and editing was good, it showed that Callie Gardner is serious about her craft. Go ahead and buy this book you will enjoy it.

Jeff was Young widower that his best friend advised him to send for a mail order bride. Although he did not think this was the right way to get a wife he decided to get to know her. Josie wanted a different life then she could get where. She lived. After a short courting they where married and had several children.

Sallie Gardner has written a book that I enjoyed reading. Josie and Jeff both had to come to grips with their feelings. The story is given an epilogue that takes place a few years later. I will read further books by Callie Gardner!!!!!!

Good as always. I read all you books and can only say I wish they were longer. Gob bless you
