Patron Saint Of First Communicants: The Story Of Blessed Imelda Lambertini (Stories Of The Saints For Young People Ages 10 To 100)

Synopsis

Gifts were piled high for 5-year-old Imelda's birthday. Imelda was delighted, but still she asked, "I was wondering if I could have just one more present." "Greedy girl!" laughed her father.

Unfortunately, her parents could not give her this one present--Our Lord in Holy Communion. But Imelda decided to ask Our Lord Himself. What would He reply? This book gives the answer and tells how little Imelda came to be the Patroness of First Communicants.

Mary Fabyan Windeatt lived from 1910-1979 and grew up in Saskatchewan, Canada. The Mount Saint Vincent College awarded her a Licentiate of Music degree when she was just seventeen, and she began writing Catholic works when she was about twenty-four. Later she sent one of her stories to a Catholic magazine, and after it was accepted, she continued to write. In total she composed at least twenty-one children's books, as well as periodical children's pages written for The Torch, a monthly Dominican magazine. Mary Windeatt is most renowned for her many novels of the saints, which she wrote specifically for children, including lives on the Children of Fatima, Cure of Ars, St. Thomas Aquinas, St. Rose of Lima and many others. After living with her mother in St. Meinrad, Indiana, she died on the twentieth of November, 1979.

I was looking for more ways to help prepare my daughter for her First Holy Communion, make this time special, and convey to her the importance of the sacrament. We started at Easter by putting this book in her Easter basket. The book is written in a way that was really interesting to her, had some drawings to keep the attention of earlier readers, and introduced her to a new saint in a way that makes that saint very approachable for her. It also gives kids a nice picture of life during Imelda's time. My daughter is an advanced reader, so some kids may need help reading this, but we read it together anyway so that we could talk about things in the book as we read.

Wonderful book! This book details a little child's devotion to The Eucharist in such detail and with so much beauty that any adult or child will be inspired to grow closer to Christ in the Eucharist. A must have for First Communicants, and converts. Great Gift!

This book is probably a 3rd/4th grade reading level. Even though he could have read it himself, I read it to my son the year he was making his first communion. It was a wonderful way to solidify and enhance all that he had been learning about the eucharist. And it gave us one-on-one time. It also brought up questions he had and allowed me to teach him more, which I think has enriched his faith. I don't think he'll ever forget that the eucharist is the real body and blood of Jesus and this book helps to solidify that.

My Mother's name was "Anne Imelda Maloney McKeever". She had great devotion to St. Imelda and to the Sacrament of the Eucharist (Holy Communion). My Mom received Communion at least once a week for the entire 95 years of her life. It has been said: "You are what you eat". In consuming the Body and Blood of Jesus over and over again, my Mom grew into the image of Our Lord and God...a loving, compassionate, holy woman. Thank you for offering this lovely book to us.

Great book about the saint, thought the saint's story ends very weird. (Spoiler: At her very first communion, she dies. Huh?)

Excellent!

This is a wonderfully inspiring story for second graders and those older!

Yet again a wonderful book by Windeatt. Book in excellent condition and fast shipping too. My daughter is reading this in preparation for her own First Communion!
