Eric Hill (www.funwithspot.com) left school when he was 15 and took up cartooning while working as a messenger at an art studio. He created Where's Spot? as a bedtime story for his two-year old son. It was published four years later, and the rest is history. Eric Hill passed away in July 2014.

My toddler is at the age where he gets bored easily when you read to him. This book has pages where you can flip over to see a hidden animal, he gets a kick out of it. This is his favorite book. Highly recommend. And, if you're not a native Spanish speaker, this book has very easy vocabularies.

I love this book but wish it were available in a cardboard hardback version because after the first day my son bent the thin pages and spilled water on it so it looks like years of wear and tear even though it is brand new!!

It's a very soft and thin cover . Consider that if you are buying it for a little kid who might rip the pages

Mi hijo de 10 meses ama este libro. Tiene letras grandes, facil de leer, los dibujos son bonitos, muy bien hechos, llamativos para los bebes, ademas las ventanas que se pueden abrir para buscar a spot hace que los bebes desarrollen curiosidad por lo que esta ahi escondido. Lindo libro, y muy llamativo para los bebes.

My three year old's favorite book! Bought it because it's easy to just speak English to her all day but I really want her to speak Spanish. It's an interactive book and she gets really excited to read it.

I purchased this for my daughter when she was 1 even though we speak primarily English. She loved this book and thought it was so funny how Spot's mom couldn't find Spot until the very end. All the characters Spot's mom encounters are different animals and my daughter liked that, plus she learned quite a few Spanish words from listening to us read this book.

Bought this for my daughter, We read this daily. while Spanish is not our first language we have been learning together and this is definitely one of her favorite books. Great for teaching location.

My daughter loves it u have to open little places in the book to find the animals.
