Vincent Virga has been called, "America's foremost picture editor." He is the coauthor of Eyes of the Nation and the author of Cartographia: Mapping Civilizations, produced in cooperation with the Library of Congress. Daniel Spinella has been an editor and writer for over twenty years. His poems have been published widely in small press magazines. He is also the author of It Happened in Massachusetts, 2nd edition (GPP).

I gave it to my son and he loved it. It was what he hoped Massachusetts: Mapping the Bay State through History: rare and unusual would be.

This book is a tremendous resource for folks looking into Massachusetts history. Old maps are hard to find and this is a great collection.
