Cities of Darkness Vol 1 combines two old Vampire the Masquerade 2nd edition 'City Supplement' sourcebooks into one. The two books that are combined in this one product are DC by Night and New Orleans by Night. DC by Night by itself is an incredibly rare sourcebook that goes for over 30.00 on Ebay and .New Orleans by night is a decent city to run a Vampire the Masquerade chronicle. The New Orleans by Night portion of the book is mediocre at best. The author fails to capture a feeling or campaign in the supplement. There is really no direction in terms of a long term chronicle. The book however does have a good adventure at the end of the writing and can be a fun play for a group. However, the downfall is that the entire city seems to be written centering around this single adventure in the back. There is very little room or stories going on in New Orleans, and the writer put all of their egg shells in the written module....DC by Night however is an entirely different story. There is a theme and struggle of POWER and POLITICS in the supplement. The author does an excellent job fleshing out characters from all clans, interesting coteries, and gives ideas for many plot hooks or threads. DC by Night is a book provides you with information and material to be able to run a chronicle for YEARS. This product is worth the price, mainly for the DC by night portion.

Great book for running stories in both cities and surrounding areas. A must have for any Vampire collection.

note: typed in chat lol. :) I find it hard to give something 5 stars but, this is a very good book. It is not for your every day gamer tho, it is a heavy duty source book which covers New Orleans and DC by night, it is filled with lots of history and character info for dozens of people in both cities outlining most every residing Kindred (and even some Hunters and Mages) known to be there! New Orleans also comes with a canned story which is filled with lots of source info in itself. Not to say the book has no flaws I find it funny that none of the Kindred in New Orleans or DC have any (no merits either!) but with that aside I find it hard to point my finger at anything else so all and all I would say it is a must have for any WoD guru
