The book is full of useful information. Maybe it won't be an eye-opener as much of it is well known, but it is still very handy to have all the insight gathered in one place

This is a great book if you're in the stages of deciding whether or not to become a professional photographer. The author explains both the pros and cons of beginning your own business and what to expect along the way. Orenstein provides helpful tips and techniques without leaving a single detail out. You will be fully prepared to jump right in the business world of photography after reading this book!

Doesn't help at all.

Super useful book

I love this book! It was filled with useful information that was easy to understand. I enjoyed the different point of views from multiple professional photographer's in a variety of markets. A very nice resource!

Excellent book for photographers for all demographics! Recommended to all fellow friends/photographers who is looking for a little money on the side and starting a business...

Love this book! Very insightful
