Customer Reviews

Very informative book about TEFL certificates indeed! It is a very interesting idea to teach English abroad. To do that, you greatly improve your chances by having a TEFL certificate. Author kicks off the book with listing pros and cons and what the certificate is. It paints a really good picture for us, readers. Then I learned the costs of the certificates and different means of obtaining it. Not only that, the author also lists different countries, in which you can apply yourself. Salaries were included as well. The author closes the book with some useful tips regarding teaching abroad. Overall, I could safely say that if anyone wants to become a teacher abroad, this book is a good start!

This is a terrific overview of pretty much everything you would need to know about attaining employment in a foreign country teaching English! Perfect for those who want to make life a little more interesting!

This book encouraged to be one of ESL abroad teacher and I'll found it interesting to be teacher someday. Being a teacher is the best work you can contribute in the abroad or in our society. We can teach the students the proper English language. Well this book has a step by step guide on how exactly to land our self with the best possible teaching position. So to be best teacher English grab this book this can really help you.

This is an comprehensive guide for aspiring teachers of TESL. Almost everything you needed to know for teaching English abroad is inside the book.

Sometimes it so that a person doesn't have the right profession, or sometimes they don't get to do what they love. If you are good in English and are passionate about teaching, TEFL might be a good solution. However, there are many things to take into consideration when teaching English. This book does an outstanding job laying out all the necessary details. It really makes it sound easier and help with taking action.

I purchased this book for my sister who wants to teach abroad. It has helped her in getting the certifications that are required, as well as given her direction on where she wants to teach. For the length of the book, she has said that there is a wealth of knowledge, but also easy to understand even if you are just wanting to learn more about teaching abroad.

Very helpful for those looking into teaching English abroad. Great coverage and easy to read. The author did a good job providing practical advice and insights on how to professionally and personally prepare yourself taking on a TEFL job in a foreign country. Love this book!
