Susan Bates is an experienced cross-stitch designer. She regularly designs patterns for cross stitch books and magazines. Her designs are beautifully coloured and show her love of detail. So far Susan has written 5 books on cross stitch and 1 book on freestyle embroidery. Her designs cover a wide range of topics, such as birds, flowers, gardens, animals, food and fashion. All of her books show the charts for the designs in clearly laid out colour charts and are a joy to stitch.

My new favorite book! Has an orchid, peacock, parakeet, lots of nice charts. Really nice shading but not so complicated that you won't ever so them.

Susan Bates has been a favorite designer of mine for years. She currently has a number of design books out which concentrate on motifs. I like getting motif designs because it lets me decide how to put the items together and for what purpose. I bought her current books from a local needlework store and have been having a lot of fun with them. This booklet is of hearts, birds, and flowers motifs (there are even hearts made up of flowers). All of the designs have the quality that tells you it is by Susan Bates - very sweet and whimsical in style. This is a book for anyone from a beginner to advanced and I recommend it.
