Customer Reviews

A stunning book. A necessity for anyone traveling to Tonga. -- Jon Beauchamp, Sailing Safaris (Tonga) For everyone venturing into these wonderful islands. The authors have addressed every aspect of Tonga. We highly recommend it. --Brian and Joan Hepurn, Directors Island Cruising Association

Authors Charles Paul & Katherine Pham-Paul are writers and career explorers who have logged more than 50,000 miles at sea and spent more than 3 years in the South Pacific researching this guide.

Although the book was much thinner than I had expected it covered all aspects of sailing the Vava'u islands of Tonga. It was certainly worth the purchase as it helped us plan for our trip.

A thorough useful guide to cruising this area. Essential. Where to anchor, how to get there, whether you can stay overnight or should find a safer spot. You can leave your camera at home because you are unlikely to get better photos. Don't leave your mooring without it!

Good mix of details on anchorages through to local traditions. I would recommend this to anyone planning to go sailing around the Vavu islands

I am the author of Ken's Comprehensive Guide to the Kingdom of Tonga. The Pauls lifted information and text directly from my book and claimed the work as theirs. They claim their book is a result of years of experience in Tonga. In fact, it just took a reading of my book.

We spend 9 nights on a charter boat cruising around Tonga and the book told us everything we needed to know about sailing the area and choosing good locations to anchor (Day or Night) - A must have!
