Patricia Hermes is the author of more than 40 novels for children and young adults, and two nonfiction books for adults. She is a lifelong lover of horses and enjoys taking riding lessons. Although she has never owned her own horse, many horses have owned her heart. She lives in Fairfield, Connecticut. Ruth Sanderson has illustrated books for children of all ages, including Summer Pony and Winter Pony. She lives with her family in Ware, Massachusetts, and her favorite hobby is horseback riding.

I loved this book!!! Out of all the horse diaries this one was my all time favorite. I loved the attachment Koda felt for Jasmine and the loyalty they felt for each other.

This was a great book! I think that there was just the right amount of drama for children from ages 8-12. I also like that there are nice facts and showing how hard work will always pay off. I would like to get the others books in the series as well.

My daughter loves this series of books! She is crazy about horses and particularly likes the fact that these books are told from the horse's perspective! It is sometimes very difficult getting kids to read - I have found books that utilize animals as characters are very engaging for young readers. My daughter also loves that each book has a different author because she feels it gives the reader more variety with the characters especially since each story is told by a horse. Happy reading!

A great horse story and horses are one of her favorite animals. Worked well for a book report she needed to do for school.

This is a great book for anyone who loves or is interested in horses. It teaches you about loyalty and companionship. It also shows you that pets are really just family that you just can't communicate with. So if you have a pet treat them like family cause family will help you if you need it. So will your pets, big or small.

I bought this for my ten year old daughter, she really enjoyed and wants more.

I bought this book for my ten year old daughter. It is below her reading level, but she LOVES horses and anything to do with them. I hadn't heard about this series yet and was very pleased to hear that my daughter really liked this series. I bought the rest that were available and when she finished number 4 she asked me if there were any more books in the series. I have the next two on pre-order!

My 9 year old niece is starting to read this series. I hope she loves it, she loves horses.
