Customer Reviews

I was hoping there'd be more pretty pictures of a princess and an (at least simple) background, but a lot of pages were just solo shots of the princess alone which can be boring after a while. I like the sections on Ariel the most because she had a lot of background. I'm disappointed the most with Cinderella's section which was not only limited to similar solo poses, but also super thick, blurry lines. (blurry as in, the line is so thick, the ink used to draw her eyes kinda bled together) Other than that, it's okay for its price. I got this for around $4, couldn't expect much anyway. The page quality is of the typical, cheap grayish thin paper. I'll be using crayons for this since color pencils don't stick well either. ./

Great coloring book with many pages of princesses to color. Not heavy paper, but my granddaughters don't care. This is my second book, as they have used so many pages. Good value for the price. Can use markers and watercolor paint, but they will bleed through. I put old newspaper under the page being used. I usually take out the page they want to color.

3 year old cousin LOVES this.

Great book, lots of pages!

My 5 year old daughter loved it! Huge coloring book for the price!! The pictures are the perfect amount of detail for my daughter. Not simple pictures - but not the super detailed ones either.

Mostly coloring pages which is why I get them. Thanks super fun coloring book.

Big book. Good price.
