Started reading can't wait for the class to start

Just what I needed.

Lee Cuba's book A SHORT GUIDE TO WRITING ABOUT SOCIAL SCIENCE is exactly what the title promises -- a succinct, thoughtful and helpful guide for students and novices wanting to write for a social science readership. It is a concise yet comprehensive introduction with loads of examples to drive the major points home. It is a must for students majoring or taking classes in the social sciences. Others wishing to write for a social science market should also pick up a copy. I supervise a writing program in my university department and we keep this book handy on our shelf.

everything needed to write a paper in the area of social sciences was in this book.
