Eric Liddell Audiobook: Something Greater Than Gold (Christian Heroes: Then & Now)

Synopsis

As the race began, it had seemed obvious that Eric Liddell was overmatched. Now the crowd in the Olympic stadium hushed as this runner from Scotland refused to be passed. As Eric crossed the finish line, the crowd erupted in applause heard all over Paris. Eric Liddell had done the impossible. A new world record had been set! Eric's refusal earlier that week to run on Sunday in the Olympic 100-meter race had stunned the world. Now his incredible victory in the 400-meter race further strengthened his belief in God's promise, "He who honors Me, I will honor." Years later, Eric Liddell would be tested far beyond mere physical ability as a missionary to China. His character, perseverance, and endurance are a challenging example for all who would obey the call to bring the gospel to the nations. Janet and Geoff Benge are a husband-and-wife writing team with more than twenty years of writing experience. Janet is a former elementary-school teacher. Geoff holds a degree in history. Originally from New Zealand, the Benges spent ten years serving with Youth With A Mission.

Eric Liddell's life story inspired me. This audio book is one all young people (and older, too) should hear. Eric's life was punctuated at every turn by faithfulness to God. He did not spend his time judging what others should do, but he encouraged and inspired others by continually doing what God wanted him to do. His story was presented in a way that not only held my attention, but caused me to think about the consequences of faithfulness. When someone is true to God, everyone around is blessed and uplifted. In wartime his life was a beacon of hope. I bought the audiobook because of Eric Liddell's mention in another book I read entitled "A Boy's War." I was intrigued by the mention of him there, and wanted to know more. I'm so glad I did.

It is easy to confuse fame with heroism. This book demonstrates the life of a hero of the faith. An excellent resource for anyone and very appropriate for children.

Excellent and inspiring story! Love to listen to it when I commute with my kids. Appropriate for all ages of listeners.
