Could've been better, for the price I thought I was getting the book a bit identical to the english version. But no, it's just half the story, the spanish text is accurate though.

disappointed that this is NOT the whole Chica Chica Boom Boom story in spanish - story is cut in half... my kids may not be a spanish speaker yet but he knows that the rest of the story is missing! Duh! AND - huge for me - it is missing letters from the actual Spanish alphabet that I wanted to share with my son. No N-yeah....LL....RR....or CH...crappy "spanish version knockoff" Just terrible.

My son loves this book in English! This helps me reference back and forth to teach him how to read/write in Spanish. The only downfall about the Spanish version is that the book is only half of the English version. The story ends when all the [lowercase] letters fall from the coconut tree.

I was disappointed that the Spanish version was only the first half of the book. Wish they would have mentioned that (maybe another review did but I admit I didn't read those because this was a book, and, well, a book is a book, usually.

We love that it is in Spanish!

This version is in Spanish and very cute! Only this is that it ends when the letters fall down.

I didn't realize this wasn't the full version of the book, so it was a bit disappointing. Good quality though.

Only half the book! it ends when the letters fall out of the tree....
