Customer Reviews

This is an amazing 20th Century work that should be a part of every flutist's repertoire. It is highly expressive and there is lots of room for interpretation, so when you play it you can truly own your performance. I can't wait to be able to play it well. The book also looks very nice, and the pages have a lovely texture.

Some pieces, like the Chaminade flute concerto, or anything Bach, are a joy to play sans accompaniment. This piece isn't one of them. It's modern and truly needs the background part to make musical sense. If you take this on, listen to a lot of recordings of it so you know where the lines are going. Not for beginners.

A beautiful and difficult piece with many rewards
