Very basic football book for someone who knows absolutely nothing about the sport, or for a small child who is just getting in to the sport. This is not a detailed rule book. More of a basic "what is football?" Book.

Perfect book for a toddler. Actually helped my older daughter who didn't really understand the game get a better understanding of the roles. She read it to him and they learned together.

My son LOVES this book! My 2 year old has read this book more times than I can count. Such a fun way to learn about football. If your child loves sports, you have to get this book.

My students really loved this book as a read aloud around the time of the Super Bowl. We all learned something about the game of football and our football vocabulary was expanded.

My son LOVES this book. He's two. I love that it's current with NFL players and teams. Aaron Rogers, Tom Brady, Russell Wilson. He loves the last page where they are dumping Gatorade on Pete Carroll - that cracks him up.

This was a gift for my, then 3 year old, son on Christmas. We are approaching a year & it is still his favorite book! It's actually quite informative about the sport. The illustrations are very cute & my son loves seeing the various NFL teams in the book. I bought him the baseball & hockey books for this Christmas!

I have three little boys 3-5yrs old. All three of them gather around to hear this book being read. It has vivid colors and great pictures. Concepts are basic, and easy for them to follow. A favorite read at our house!

My 6 yr. old grandson loved this book He is just getting interested in football and this book was perfect for him. Cute illustrations and easy to follow explanation of the game.
