This book offers a spectacular reference to any artist whom is interested in designing themes. As an artist its the holy grail for me because I'm ALWAYS looking for a library of reference images and guides for my art and subjects of the Native American is a must for me!

Perfect for jewelry designing needs. It has more specific designs for jewelry. It is quite useable and inspiring. Handy reference.

This book has some really nice designs. I use them to put on leather. Very accurate American Indian designs. Great book! Well done.

its ok.

Many designs for borders as well as animals, people, and things. I have found almost all of the designs useable for my pottery work.

Excellent book for getting native american designs that are used, either to paint or use for jewelry.
