Customer Reviews

Up-to-date reviews ... Lively and informed discussion ... one of the best guides around The Irish Post

I bought this book to explore Boston better, and the information seems to be very accurate. However, as a New Englander, I am a bit perturbed that the picture of our clam chowder is the wrong one! New England clam chowder is cream-based and therefore not the red colored one (ie, Manhattan clam chowder). Just thought I'd mention that so they will update it for future editions.

I am a big fan of these rough guides, and also this guide about Boston didn't disappoint me. As Belgian people who came to live here in Boston, I wanted to use the guide to know all the highlights to see and to visit in the city. The guide gives a lot of correct and detailed information such as correct prices, opening hours, the time needed to visit things and a correct review. I love all of these guides!

Meh.

Lots of inside info, background, history--the kind of stuff I like to have when I visit a new place. I got this and the Frommer's small guide, and that did us just fine.

I am so EXCITED to write the first review of the Rough Guide to Boston!! I've had my copy for a few weeks now and after looking through it....I CAN'T WAIT TO GO TO BOSTON!!! I was wondering where I would vacation this season and after flipping through this, Boston it is! This book is really well written and gave me some great ideas of family friendly places to go in Boston. Great job to Rough Guides & Ms. Hull...I'll carry this book with me every step of the way!! Thanks for helping me decide on BOSTON!!
