Customer Reviews

I love children's books. As a father of three and a grandfather of nine, I have done more than my share of both reading children's stories and inventing a few of my own. . . . My friend Casey Fritz is a dad and also a pastor, and he writes stories for children. This quite glorious book is full of interesting characters. . . . You and your children will be captured by all of them. (Eugene Peterson)

A troll who finds the rarest of treasures . . . A sheep in search of his shepherd . . . A King who loves with an un-changing love . . . Good Night Tales takes your children on a vivid, beautiful, and imaginative adventure through scriptural truths. In this read-aloud treasury of twelve stories, with words and art by C. S. Fritz, families will be swept up in a forest realm ruled by a glorious King •and see the Bible come alive in new ways.
