Praise for The Twilight Saga:"Move over, Harry Potter." - USA Today"[Stephenie Meyer is] the world's most popular vampire novelist since Anne Rice" - Entertainment Weekly" Meyer has, like one of her vampires, turned into something rare and more than merely human ... people do not want to just read Meyer's books; they want to climb inside them and live there." - Time" Meyer writes with luminous clarity, never standing between the reader and the dream they share. She's the real thing." - Orson Scott Card, author of the Ender Saga"A literary phenomenon." - The New York Times" Hypnotic." - People magazine

Stephenie Meyer is the author of the #1 bestselling Twilight Saga and The Host. She graduated from Brigham Young University with a degree in English literature, and she lives with her husband and three young sons in Arizona.

This journal set and collector tin far exceeded my expectations. They arrived brand new, were still factory sealed and gorgeous. The tin is very beautiful and sturdy and has a perfect Twilight look to it. The journals are so incredible! The original book covers are on each of the four journals. They are filled with quotes from Twilight and a few quotes from other books. They are plenty big enough to write in should you choose to do so. The pages are beautifully detailed and designed. I am a collector but I had to open these and carefully look through them. I don't plan to write in mine as I want to keep them preserved as well as I can but if I wanted to it would be easy. I've seen complaints that say the journals are too small to write in but I don't agree at all. They really gave me an awesome feeling looking at them. Any Twilight lover or collector should own these. I highly recommend buying a set or two. I don't think they look cheap at all, they're well made. I honestly don't know how anyone could be disappointed in them myself.

I was expecting little journals (one for each book) to be enclosed in this cheap little tin and I figured that each journal was going to be soft cover not hard and I expected plain white or lined white pages like a scribbler. I didn't put much thought into its quality... until I opened the tin! Wow! I'm so impressed with what I got for the price. The tin is embossed and not boring like I thought. Each journal is hard covered. The pages are not plain white/lined white. They're not too big and not too small. Some of the pages have faded pictures on them and most of them has a favourite quote chosen by Stephenie Meyer herself either from the books or from her favourite books that were mentioned in the Twilight saga. No, the pages aren't lined, but I think that would take away from them if they were. These journals have the quality of a hard cover novel. They're beautiful! I haven't quite decided whether to actually write in them or not. If I do, it'll be something special pertaining to the Twilight saga like my own personal favourite quotes or reviews of the chapters. I don't want to mess these up but putting trivial journal entries in them. They're too nice! I love them! Well worth it! A very nice collector's item.

I have filled many journals, but I wasn't sure if these were the right journals for me. However, after reading the very positive reviews they have received, I eagerly ordered my own. I wanted to write another review because there are a few additional things that I noticed that weren't explained as clearly in the other reviews. The journals are beautiful on the outside, and the covers are very much like the covers of the Twilight series books. Many other reviews talked about how the journals were "small." To me, the page size wasn't small. It was fairly comparable to other journals I've written in. However, the width of each book was smaller than I expected. says there are 385 pages total, which averages to 96 pages per journal. This is not as many pages as other journals I've had. As others described, there are quotes in each journal which are from characters in the books, or other quotes that inspired Stephenie Meyer. The quotes from characters in the books are in their own "handwriting," as seen in the books. Another additional thing about the quotes: the quotes used come from each respective books (for example, the Twilight journal has quotes from the book Twilight, the New Moon journal has quotes from the book New Moon, etc.), and they follow chronologically through the books. Since it is structured this way, the journals tell their own story if you progress through them page by page. This was a bonus for me! I wasn't sure how I was going to feel about the other quotes, but they are tied in quite nicely. For Twilight, the quotes are from Pride and Prejudice, for New Moon, they are from Romeo and Juliet, etc. They are structured in such a way that you can really see the inspiration that Meyer drew from them and how they parallel the Twilight story. The pages aren't lined, but I don't anticipate this being a problem. It gives whomever will be writing in the journal more flexibility. Additionally, there are some very elegant forest scenes on some of the pages, which are light enough to write over, but add a nice touch very reminiscent of Forks. If you are a Twilight fan and you are looking for a good set of journals, I highly recommend these. You can weave your own story into the pages of another story that inspired you. I am excited to continue filling mine!

I really love everything about the journals and the tin thingy it came in! The journals are so pretty. They have quotes from the books in each one and some pages have the forest and it just beautiful! The journals are hard cover. I showed my dad this and he looked at it and started reading the quotes in the journal and he said he is tempted to rewatch the movies again. My parents and I love Twilight. I have no idea what to write in these journals. Journals are just so pretty and I have horrible handwriting and I don't want to make the journals ugly by my handwriting. I wish I had pretty handwriting. I'll figure out something to do with these journals.

I bought these for my 11 year old daughter as a Christmas present. When they arrived I was a little jealous that I hadn't got a set for myself also! They come in a pretty tin container that can be kept for storage of the books or knick knacks. The journals are nicely done with soft scenes in the background and quotes from the series and other well known books. Much nicer than getting a blank paged journal with a nice cover. I really think that a lot of thought was put into these. They don't look like something quickly put together to make more $ on the Twilight franchise. I also like the idea that I am giving my child a nice outlet for her poems that she likes to write or she can just write her daily thoughts in a nice book. I put these in my wish list and was notified of price reductions, which helped my decision to purchase when a seller greatly dropped the price of this set. Give these a try I think that you will be very happy with your choice.
