Be sure to chase away the chill afterwards with big bowls of Black Kettle Brunswick Stew served with hearty slices of Joan's Cranberry Nut Bread. Gather family & friends to watch the big game while snacking on Buffalo Chicken Sliders and Harvest Cashew Popcorn...both are sure to be show-stopping favorites! Coco's Herbed Roast Turkey is perfect for Thanksgiving dinner, served with a big, steamy mug of Hot Caramel Apple Cider. Top the big meal off right with a generous slice of Maple Custard Pie and a sweet plateful of Leslie's Gingersnaps. Don't worry if you're short on time, because we've included a whole chapter dedicated to quick-fix slow-cooker recipes. Plus, there's even an entire chapter filled with those warm, nostalgic memories of falls past...perfect paired with a cup of hot tea and your coziest chair and blanket. So come with us as we celebrate harvest in our hometowns...places full of breathtaking colors, beautiful memories and delicious dishes.

At last count, I have over 50 of your books. I simply love, love, love every single book and use them constantly. My only problem is finding space to keep them all in easy reach! After a busy day, one of my most favorite ways to relax is to just sit and look through a Gooseberry Patch cookbook to search for fun new recipes.
