Customer Reviews

I am so glad to see Samantha getting back to Amish fiction, although I love all of her work. I really enjoyed this story. I hope the series continues.

Another great book by Samantha Bayarr This book is about love and forgiveness time can heal all things I ready for book 4

As I reached the end of the story I cried tears of happiness. Love and goodness over comes hurt and pain. This is the first book by Samantha Bayarr I have read. I intend to freak the other books in this series of books. I hope you enjoy reading this book.

Samantha Bayarr writes wonderful but short cozy Amish love stories. An Amish father will not have anything with his son and his English wife until an accident changes things.

I'm only half way through the book, but am saying that it's a very different Amish book. Really like it. Seems to be worth reading.

Samantha ties all loose ends up nicely, all the while holding the reader's attention. A bit goody-goody at times, especially at the climax, but oh well, all's gut that ends gut.
