Synopsis

Some people are fascinated with the paranormal, and simply want to see something for themselves. Others feel compassion for these spirits, and are convinced that the only reason they are still on the planet is because they are not at rest.... Regardless of why they're here, it's important to know that they really are, and these stories are here to prove it. I'm not going to tell you things people made up to scare you. I'm not going to tell you the urban legends or the old wives' tales people like to share around campfires or during sleepovers. I'm not going to tell you things that have been explained but that others try to blame on the paranormal.... No, in this book, I'm only going to tell you the tales that are true. The true paranormal experiences from around the world that are sure to keep you up at night. These stories come from everywhere - little country roads in the middle of Kentucky to incredible subway networks running underneath Sweden and everywhere in between. Get ready to embark on a journey of the supernatural, and get a glimpse of the real-life things that take place in the world around you, every single day. These are the stories that can't be explained, just told.... Here's a preview of what's in this book.... The Eternal Resident of Apartment 514 The Crawlspace Creature The Murdered Mistress of the Library England's Unfriendly Fairies The Terrifying Life in the Porcelain Doll The Mysterious Handprints on the Glass And much, much more!

Customer Reviews

Sad I spent money on this. The title should be "Read it in an hour or less short stories" And the stories are not that original. bleh

These are so good, I have always loved a good short story. Sometimes, these are better than a long novel.

This is one not to miss. Joseph Exton creeps you out with short ghost hunter tales. You will not be able to put it down. Great read

I loved this book! Definitely worth the read. I love ghost stories, so it's a 5 star rating for me
