My 2nd grader loves it. The series is great . He reads through the books quickly but he has reread

1-3 several times now. This is great for a 2nd or third grader. Really anyone. These types of books also help to cultivate a love of reading chapter books for those that are having a child struggle with reading. It also has a fast paced plot which is great for asking your child reading comprehension questions. This is a great way to interact with your child and have quality discussions and pick their brains. It's even pretty awesome for a book club for the summer.

My developing reader son LOVES this series. He read the first one from the library and now is looking forward to each release! As an avid reader, it makes me super happy that my son is beginning to love reading - in large part thanks to books like this series that capture his interest and attention. Definitely recommend for elementary age boys! (girls might like it too, but I only have boys so I can only comment on them :)

the kids LOVE this book. They laugh the whole way through. great illustrations and funny storyline that encourages reading -- and excitement about the next book in the series. While it's long, it's not SUPER long -- if we plan ahead, I can read the entire book aloud at bedtime, too.

My second grade son LOVES these books. He was struggling with his reading and these easy chapter books have really helped him. They are entertaining and building his confidence as a reader. I highly recommend them. I just wish the author would write them and release them faster! Lol

My 7 year old son loves this series. I think they're just ok. They are in a comic book style with picture panels, so it's not very wordy and the chapters go pretty fast. The humor is mostly slap-stick, with a few fart jokes thrown in. This book picks up where #2 left off, and it is also a to-be-continued. If you're new to The Bad Guys, I recommend picking up the first in the series, The Bad Guys (The Bad Guys #1) If your child likes #1 and #2, then the third one is worth buying.

My granddaughter LOVES this series! Highly recommend! It is charming, humorous, and clever. I love to hear her (8 years old) read it to me with all her inflections in the dialogue.

My daughter loves this series, perfect for when your 8 year old doesn't really want to read, as this reads like a comic book so it holds their attention!

This series is Hilarious. I love the humor, and the books have great morals. My 2nd grader is a fan, and Mom loves anything that inspires her to read
