didn't like the way it was cut up in small sections then laminated to gather. would have not purchased if I knew it was that way. have purchased laminated in the past was not all cut up. it was all in one piece. worked just fine.

The map is not very detailed at all (think of viewing Michigan on Google Maps, zoomed out a lot) but if all you're interested in are the major highways and main roads then this map should be sufficient.

I bought this as a gift for my husband for Christmas. We do a lot of camping, and he is the kind of guy that likes a physical map to look at. I like that this is laminated, we will be hanging it in our camper this summer.

Great map to have for emergency situations or daily use. I haven't used a lot yet but seems to be accurate.

its a bit small to read

I always use gps on my phone. My copilot, though, insists on "making sure" by following along with a map in hand. We've long used Rand McNally and there's no reason to stop.

This laminated map is excellent for durability. I have used laminated maps for many states and appreciate the fact they don't disintegrate after one trip.

Love the write and wipe feature!! Great map!!
