Customer Reviews

Overall, good product for the money but it would be helpful to have the advisory committee notes as well since these notes are often critical to analysis and interpretation of the rules.

As other reviews have said, this is a good product and a cheap way to make sure you always have the FRE with you even when you don't have internet access. However, I would only use it as a backup copy in case I didn't have my hard copy or access to an online source. It needs the advisory comments to truly be useful as a primary copy.
