Synopsis

Everybody knows the path to true love doesn't always run smooth, but Holly and her boyfriend Scott seem to be going in opposite directions. When their relationship takes a turn for the worst, she finds comfort in the company of her next door neighbor. Holly accepts Devon's friendship with no expectations of where it might lead. After all, she's not looking to fall in love again, and you can't find what you're not looking for. In spite of his mother's warnings about the sand running out in his hourglass, Devon isn't interested in being anything other than a single dad. He's already proven he's not very good at marriage. When he meets Holly, he isn't prepared for how his heart will respond. Since he doesn't want to act on these very much unwanted feelings, his course of action is clear. There's just one problem. How is he supposed to retreat when he's surrounded?

Customer Reviews

Delaney has done it again! She uses real life situations and weaves in little twists that are unexpected and a little extra-exciting to keep you on the edge of your seat the whole time you're reading her book. This time she uses a single dad of a twelve year old boy and the girl next door who works in a second hand shop to work her wonderful magic.

Ms. Cameron,GREAT book started reading 3 1/2 hours ago. May have to go back and read it again.Diane

Had me wishing a break at work to keep on Reading . Seeking the dream man and all the fears that it involves.... Loved to dream...

I love her books. All of them. She is another author I look for, for new books. Can't wait for the next one!

No thanks at this time!

Finished the book in one day I couldn't put it down! I love that the ending was hoped! Such a great story.

Sweet read

I loved the boy next door (or man next door) aspect of this story. Devon and Holly are just friends, until she and her boyfriend break-up. I loved the way Holly and Devon supported each other from cleaning out her gutters to going to his son's baseball games. And guess what, romance readers, they communicated with one another! I feel like that doesn't happen often in this genre, so I get excited when it does. This was a sweet romance, filled with humor, a believable and swoon-worthy romance, and side characters that I just loved. It is part of the Finding Love series. It had characters who overlap from past stories, but can be read independently. Content: clean (implied previous intimacy out of marriage, some kissing)
