Customer Reviews

The eyewitness series of travel books are the best for both planning and while on the trip. Full color pictures and decent descriptions of each area of the country are perfect before starting out and reviewing before actually visiting an area. I like all the Portugal Travel Guides.

Pleasant exhaustive book, with many points of interest of the different areas and urban communities in Portugal. Onlooker books are they best for proposals on everything. Astounding choice of attractions and actualities! Will prove to be useful while voyaging.

Nice thorough book, with many details of the various regions and cities in Portugal. It does include some suggested hotels/restaurants, however I never use the suggested listings, as they're usually VERY touristy.

This was quite a disappointment....more like a pamphlet than a book. It contains some great ideas, like go sailing in the Algarve, but gives no details of companies to contact or where to find info. Waste of money

Wonderful book. I like this book. One of the last things you would hope to discover in Portugal is a garden committed to the Buddha, Eden Garden is the biggest oriental garden in the entire of Europe. This desert garden peace contains numerous Buddha statues, pagodas, a focal staircase, an exquisite lake with bunches of Japanese carp, and flawlessly manicured gardens. I very prescribe this book.

Portugal is the coolest place I ever known but I never been there so this book would be a great guide for me. This book contains the most incredible outdoor adventures and some shops for authentic souvenirs. There are a lot of useful information in this book that could really help travelers like me.
