Global Warning: Are We On The Brink Of World War III?

Synopsis

The world is in serious trouble--and everyone knows it. Something ominous is about to happen," says evangelist Tim LaHaye. He's talking about the biblical signs of "the end times" that he sees regularly in world events, as debt, crime, and global instability take hold. The author of the LEFT BEHIND series sounds alarms in his writing (with Ed Hindson)--especially in the early chapters. The brisk, urgent tone of his narration sets off bells as well. LaHaye's goal is to get listeners thinking about how they can be ready for the Rapture, but the shrillness of the narration puts the emphasis on end-of-the-world fears.

I have a number of books which all leads me to reexplore my Bible. The surprising twist in this book is that every time I turn a page, today's current affairs unfolded becomes more and more surreal. I don't panic, but like I've said it gets me to reexplore the Biblical Prophecies. The authors done their research well. I also did not realize one point which is written in this book on page 163 (and in Nehemiah chapter 2) that the Persian emperor was the king who restructured (for the Jews) the Jerusalem Temple after Roman Emperors Vespasian and his son Titus torn down the city and its luxurious temple building. Knowing this bit of history has me wanting to learn more and more about Persia (which is modern day Iran) and why they feel Jerusalem belongs to Islam peoples. From what I've gathered from the Bible, when Father Abraham's wife (Sarah) died, the lands of Canaan were given to Abraham to bury his wife and to keep. Is this fact not considered at all in the Qu'ran (as the lands were given to Abraham as a gift)? If not, and why is it not? (I'm sure this question will open/stoke plenty of fires.) Persians were not considered to be people of Arab. Persians were not at all monotheologians. These people held onto many beliefs like the Egyptians, which is why there are many Iranians who are Christians because they were moved by hearing the historical facts about their nation who came to aid the Jews in restructuring the Hebrew Temple in Jerusalem, as well as hearing how G-d Yhwh led the Hebrew children out of Egypt (from bondage). But mostly, the wise men (prior to the birth of Jesus Christ) who lived in northern persia (Iran) and studied God, the stars, suns, moons and planets, were called Zoroastrians. These men went afar to find the child born to the Virgin Mother and deliver goods to the child (who was born in Bethlehem). (See Bereishis 3:15 and Genesis 3:15, as well as Isaiah 7). These wise men - like Moses, like Abraham, like Elijah, like Enoch - all were guided by G-d Yhwh. The wise men, however from Persia, were well respected because of their remarkable calculations. So we have here a very interesting historical point. The radicals of Iran believes that Jerusalem is an Islamic City of G-d. There is NO evidence that shows Jerusalem is an Islamic City of G-d. Jerusalem is an Hebrew City of G-d Yhwh. And G-d will show everyone of us soon and very soon that the children of Israel is the sovereign peoples to keep the lands intact and governed by the G-d Yhwh. The Jews (some) are monotheologians and others are Judeo-Christians. Dito for (some) Arabs. This book is a must read. It is an eye opener as well as a warning to all of us who are in touch with reality. Some of us refuse to listen to the Scriptures and take heed of warnings (shown in the waters, stars, moons, planets, earth etc., as Jesus Christ warned His disciples in Matthew 24). Certainly in Isaiah 52 and 53, the One who was disfigured (for our transgressions, for our sins) is the Messiah (see also Genesis 3:15/Bereisheis 3:15), whom many of us missed in our moment to believe in His Name...Son of God, Prince of Peace, Jesus Christ. It can be any day now that we will remarkably witness the rapture!! For those who do not know...the rapture is when G-d Yhwh is commanding His followers into the air and lifted away from the oncoming slaughter of man's evil missions. I highly recommend this book for reading. It should be kept near your bedside, as well as the Holy Bible (written before the reprint of the 21st century). Today, in China, there is a publishing company which reprinted in English and Chinese new Bibles. I don't think these 50 million copies were ever proofread, or checked for accuracies. We are living in the last days of age. The spirit of the antichrist is upon us. One man will rule with an iron fist and instruct the peoples (all nations on earth) to worship him. This is the antichrist --- Satan's prodigy.

This book has made me think about Jesus alot .When will He come back . And how things are in the world today. This is a good book. For all to read. It will help you to understand alot of the bible. It just makes you think whats going on in this world.

This book is a very revealing discussion of world events in light of Biblical prophecy, and is right on target. Great for anyone wanting to understand what is happening globally and why. Highly recommend!!!

Fantastic book as all of his are. Great tool for explaining prophecy and the scriptures that validate each. I recommend this book~
