Personally watching and knowing the way in which Mike Curran coaches baseball, I can honestly say this book contains every secret a high school, college or any level baseball coach should know. It gives insight into every aspect of coaching from dealing with parents to establishing a solid, well respected program. Across the country, Mike Curran is well known for his success in building a successful baseball program and he shares his philosophy in this well written book. I recommend it to anyone looking to form a successful baseball program or anyone who simply wants to learn more about the game.
