Customer Reviews

Perfect for ice-breaking activities. The questions aren't ones which will embarrass folks. My teammates enjoyed the activity!

love it

prefect to retrain your kids

As described and looking forward to use in counseling sessions

I like very using this for my therapy groups. Thank you.

Bought this for my 7 year old but actually had fun with it between a couple adults. I am not sure the questions will work for my kid (haven't tried it with her yet) but fun conversation starter for adults.

These are great conversation starters for my counseling sessions with middle school students. SOME cards have words that are a little too ahead for my student population, but my 5th and 6th graders love this game.

Such a great discussion started. Use it for individual treatment sessions and in groups. My favorite is using it with my child patients, they have fun making the choices and I get a good insight into how they make their decisions.
